

APPLICATION FOR BIOKNOWLEDGE WORKSHOP, SYMPOSIUM OR CONFERENCE FUNDING

UP TO $3000

This initiative is to enable Bioknowledge researchers to hold up to two workshops, symposia or conferences per year. The purpose is to promote a lively research culture and strengthen collaborative research among members and with other researchers and institutions. Workshops should involve a minimum of three Bioknowledge academic members, and workshop leaders should also seek to promote the active participation of research students wherever possible.

Funding is competitive and will be allocated by the Bioknowledge Steering committee. Applications must be lodged with the Research Leaders, Duncan Mackay & Mike Schwarz.
