

Alison Wotherspoon

Head of Screen Studies
Faculty of Education, Humanities, Law and Theology

Humanities 261

Phone: 8201 3908

Email: Alison.Wotherspoon@flinders.edu.au

Research Interests

Screen Production

Qualifications

BA DIP ED Hons, in drama and film

Alison Wotherspoon graduated from the University of NSW with a BA DIP ED Hons, in drama and film.

After travelling throughout England and Europe, she began her career in television and film as an Assistant Editor at the BBC in Birmingham UK.

On her return to Australia she worked as a Production Manager and Associate Producer at Film Australia, the ABC, and SBS. In 1991 Alison gained a place in the Producing Extension course at the Australian Television and Radio School and produced a number of independent films and videos.

In 1997 Alison relocated from Sydney to become Head of Screen Production in the Screen studies department of Flinders University.

Alison still directs and produces and maintains strong links with the film and television industry through out Australia.

She is currently a member of the Government Film Fund Committee of the South Australian Film Corporation (SAFC), a member of the South Australian Government's Tertiary Multimedia Training working group, a member of ASDA (Australian Screen Directors Association) and a corresponding member of CILECT (Centre International de Liaison des Ecoles de Cinéma et de Télévision).

- Conducting multidisciplinary collaborative research on Australia's biodiversity & landscapes
- Providing innovative interpretation of biodiversity research for a wide variety of end-users