

Dr Barbara Kameniar

Course Coordinator Society & Environment
School of Education
Faculty of Education, Humanities, Law &
Theology

S203C Sturt Buildings
8201 5562

Email: Barbara.Kameniar@flinders.edu.au

Research Interests

- identity, difference & representation in the classroom
- racialisation of the curriculum
- women in religion

Qualifications

Barbara's previous experience includes teaching as a secondary school teacher in South Australia and lecturing in the School of Education at the University of South Australia

Her research interests include issues of identity, difference and representation in the classroom, the racialisation of the curriculum, postcolonial identities, women in religion, and the position of women renunciants in Buddhist history and contemporary Buddhist communities.

Current Research Projects

Research Collaborations and Partners

Professional Affiliations

Committees

Member of the Social Justice Research Collective,

- Conducting multidisciplinary collaborative research on Australia's biodiversity & landscapes
- Providing innovative interpretation of biodiversity research for a wide variety of end-users